

Healthy food is a human right, yet
in some refugee communities in Australia
8 out of 10 don't have enough to eat.

Invitation

The NSW Refugee Health Service in partnership with the Sydney Food Fairness Alliance will be holding a Working Launch as a part of Refugee Week 2008.

Date: Friday 20th June 2008

Venue: Thomas and Rachel Moore Rooms, Conference Room 1
Liverpool Hospital

9:30 Presentation of research findings showing the startling prevalence of food insecurity in some refugee communities.

11:30 Small working groups to discuss immediate and long-term strategies for reducing the prevalence of food insecurity among this vulnerable group.

Please put this date in your diary. To facilitate discussions please read the attached paper. If you are interested in the full report contact Faye (as below).

RSVP to Faye Southcombe (02) 8778 0780 or Faye.Lloyd@sswahs.nsw.gov.au

---