

Marek Krol works as a Community Advocacy Officer for the City of Greater Dandenong, overseeing Council's Refugee and People Seeking Asylum Portfolio.

Part of Marek's role also involves acting as Taskforce Administrator for the Local Government Mayoral Taskforce Supporting People Seeking Asylum. The Taskforce is a coalition of 35 Councils across Australia advocating for the rights of people seeking asylum.

Prior to his role with Greater Dandenong Council, Marek studied a Masters of Public Policy at RMIT University.
